BEECHWORTH HONEY

For over 140 years, the Beechworth family have been keeping bees around Beechworth producing pure and natural Australian honey. Traditions, techniques and tales are now being passed from the 4th to the 5th generation. Stories of success and failure, hard work and determination and an enduring love for nature and the environment that sustains the Beechworth Family.

Bee Cause is a project and range of honeys that was created to shine a spotlight on the plight of bees. 1% of the global sales revenue of Beechworth Honey's Bee Cause Range goes to not-for-profit partners that support the environment, bees and biodiversity. Bee Cause is a member of the global environmental initiative, 1% for the Planet.
